

GENERAL DESCRIPTION: Seeking enthusiastic and motivated individual (s) interested in having an invaluable learning experience that not only broadens their horizons, but also gives them a chance to work for a good cause. Spaulding for Children is looking for students interested in exploring career paths in our Business Office and/or Human Resource Department. We are looking for long term placements as well so those able to commit to short term projects such as: action steps related to the strategic plan, federal/local laws, policy/procedure development or review and accreditation standard review